Peace Leader Professional Certificate Course

The Peace Leader Certificate is an applied six-month online introduction to the role and practices of a Peace Leader. The program endeavors to integrate best practices from peace studies and leadership studies. As Peace Leaders in training, students will examine and practice personal and communal skills and values that are fundamental in nurturing a Culture of Peace. The course is designed around three core themes: Self-awareness and Cultural awareness; Conflict resolution and reconciliation; Servant-leadership

Each theme is presented with theory and applied exercises designed to enhance the student's awareness, skill, and familiarity with methods and practices for Peace Leader development. The program culminates with a final project in which students apply Peace Leader principles and practices to address a collective concern within a local community.
